

THE ARGUS

Published for the year 1921.

THE DAILY UNION

Published at the postoffice at Rock Island, Ill., as second class matter under the act of March 3, 1879.

W. J. W. FOSTER CO., Publishers.

Rock Island, Illinois, November 29, 1920.

United Press Associated Press. Full

and Latest Wire Report.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the reproduction of all news dispatches received by its wire and radio connections in this paper and also the rights of publication thereon.

United Press Associated Press. Full

and Latest Wire Report.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the reproduction of all news dispatches received by its wire and radio connections in this paper and also the rights of publication thereon.

United Press Associated Press. Full

and Latest Wire Report.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the reproduction of all news dispatches received by its wire and radio connections in this paper and also the rights of publication thereon.

United Press Associated Press. Full

and Latest Wire Report.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the reproduction of all news dispatches received by its wire and radio connections in this paper and also the rights of publication thereon.

United Press Associated Press. Full

and Latest Wire Report.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the reproduction of all news dispatches received by its wire and radio connections in this paper and also the rights of publication thereon.

United Press Associated Press. Full

and Latest Wire Report.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the reproduction of all news dispatches received by its wire and radio connections in this paper and also the rights of publication thereon.

United Press Associated Press. Full

and Latest Wire Report.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the reproduction of all news dispatches received by its wire and radio connections in this paper and also the rights of publication thereon.

United Press Associated Press. Full

and Latest Wire Report.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the reproduction of all news dispatches received by its wire and radio connections in this paper and also the rights of publication thereon.

United Press Associated Press. Full

and Latest Wire Report.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the reproduction of all news dispatches received by its wire and radio connections in this paper and also the rights of publication thereon.

United Press Associated Press. Full

and Latest Wire Report.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the reproduction of all news dispatches received by its wire and radio connections in this paper and also the rights of publication thereon.

United Press Associated Press. Full

and Latest Wire Report.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the reproduction of all news dispatches received by its wire and radio connections in this paper and also the rights of publication thereon.

United Press Associated Press. Full

and Latest Wire Report.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the reproduction of all news dispatches received by its wire and radio connections in this paper and also the rights of publication thereon.

United Press Associated Press. Full

and Latest Wire Report.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the reproduction of all news dispatches received by its wire and radio connections in this paper and also the rights of publication thereon.

United Press Associated Press. Full

and Latest Wire Report.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the reproduction of all news dispatches received by its wire and radio connections in this paper and also the rights of publication thereon.

United Press Associated Press. Full

and Latest Wire Report.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the reproduction of all news dispatches received by its wire and radio connections in this paper and also the rights of publication thereon.

United Press Associated Press. Full

and Latest Wire Report.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the reproduction of all news dispatches received by its wire and radio connections in this paper and also the rights of publication thereon.

United Press Associated Press. Full

and Latest Wire Report.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the reproduction of all news dispatches received by its wire and radio connections in this paper and also the rights of publication thereon.

United Press Associated Press. Full

and Latest Wire Report.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the reproduction of all news dispatches received by its wire and radio connections in this paper and also the rights of publication thereon.

United Press Associated Press. Full

and Latest Wire Report.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the reproduction of all news dispatches received by its wire and radio connections in this paper and also the rights of publication thereon.

United Press Associated Press. Full

and Latest Wire Report.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the reproduction of all news dispatches received by its wire and radio connections in this paper and also the rights of publication thereon.

United Press Associated Press. Full

and Latest Wire Report.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the reproduction of all news dispatches received by its wire and radio connections in this paper and also the rights of publication thereon.

United Press Associated Press. Full

and Latest Wire Report.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the reproduction of all news dispatches received by its wire and radio connections in this paper and also the rights of publication thereon.

United Press Associated Press. Full

and Latest Wire Report.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the reproduction of all news dispatches received by its wire and radio connections in this paper and also the rights of publication thereon.

United Press Associated Press. Full

and Latest Wire Report.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the reproduction of all news dispatches received by its wire and radio connections in this paper and also the rights of publication thereon.

United Press Associated Press. Full

and Latest Wire Report.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the reproduction of all news dispatches received by its wire and radio connections in this paper and also the rights of publication thereon.

United Press Associated Press. Full

and Latest Wire Report.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the reproduction of all news dispatches received by its wire and radio connections in this paper and also the rights of publication thereon.

United Press Associated Press. Full

and Latest Wire Report.

initiated by Fisher Ames of Massachusetts, a prominent statesman of his period and a friend of Washington.

At that time there was a considerable movement afoot to nullify the treaty with England and Fisher Ames was foremost among those who demanded that it remain intact.

History not only repeats, but, at times, may be heard using its old speeches over, almost word for word; voicing old fears and trembling for the safety of the republic with the same old shivers; freshening and dusting off old arguments and serving them as new.

Ecclesiastes asks: "Is there anything whereof it may be said, See, this is new? It hath been already of old time, which was before us . . . There is no new thing under the sun."

They Can't Forget.

Among the rosters for the visitors at Douglas park yesterday was an attractive young woman occupying one of the northern field boxes. She wanted to see the Independents defeated a thousand to nothing, and she didn't care who knew her wish, either, for she talked right out in the open, though she conducted herself in a perfectly proper manner. One would have imagined that she had a sweetheart or a relative in the line opposing the Rock Islanders, and that for this reason she was shouting for a victory for the visitors.

But this was not so, for the reason that she was accompanied by her husband. And he sat quietly by, and as friend wife hurled words of encouragement at the visitors, with now and then a dig for the home team, friend husband puffed at his cigar and laughed. Occasionally he would urge her to not be so demonstrative, but she refused to heed him, and she continued her rooting until the last minute of play, when, so hoarse that she could barely speak above a whisper, she took her husband's arm, and he almost carried her to their automobile. She had lost, and she looked it. They went home to Davenport. None will deny the right of the Davenport lady to shout for her favorite team. Folks go to sporting events to see a clean fight and they are allowed to root to their heart's content. It is nothing unusual to see a woman rooster in action at a football game. But this case is one to which attaches peculiar significance. For some unexplainable reason Davenport folks don't like to see Rock Island win. Rock Island people don't feel that way when Davenport is concerned, when Davenport is opposed to some outside contender. To be sure when Rock Island and Davenport teams meet, it is only natural Rock Island folks would want to see their home team win.

Since the early days of the Three-Eye baseball league, when Rock Island and Davenport were members, and when Rock Island repeatedly carried off the honors, there has been an envious feeling among the sports on the other side of the river, and they refuse to forget. It crops out on every possible occasion. The young woman who almost rooted herself into a nervous collapse yesterday is carrying the germ. It's in the blood. Rock Island regrets that the ailment with which her neighbor has so long suffered is incurable, apparently.

Men Must Sacrifice.

Last week there was called an important meeting of the Rock Island Chamber of Commerce. One of the matters scheduled for attention was nomination of officers to be voted upon in January. When the hour for convening the meeting arrived it was discovered there was not a quorum present and an adjournment was necessary.

The Chamber of Commerce is, or ought to be, the civic mainspring of Rock Island. It has a membership of several hundred, representing all lines of business and the professions. Such a body of men, acting harmoniously, can accomplish almost anything it sets out to do.

"Simply joining an organization and paying dues does not fill one's responsibility to his community. The Chamber of Commerce will be only as strong and useful as its personnel determines it shall be. A secretary is helpless unless he has the impetus of cooperation behind him.

In other cities the Chambers of Commerce are getting results for their communities. There is much of good to be done in Rock Island, and it is up to an organization such as the Chamber of Commerce to assume leadership in those betterment movements.

Rock Island is a city of 35,000 population. There are men here who know how to do things just as well as men in other cities. All that they lack is the purpose to get together and the will to do.

If the Chamber of Commerce is to be what it was intended that it should be when its organization was launched there must be an awakening among its membership. Men must be willing to serve, even though in doing so they are obliged to make little sacrifices of time and money.

HERE LIES MAN'S ANCIENT ENEMY, CULL CARE, WHO DISINTERS THE UNLOVED CUSC.

DEAR MRS. THOMPSON: My mother is in California, taking care of my sick brother. I have no one to go to with my troubles.

I am a high school graduate and am 20 years of age. I am employed as a salesclerk in a store here.

When I was 18 years of age I met a young man 18 years of age. I think it was a case of love at first sight with both of us. Many times I saw him three times a week.

Every time I saw him I loved him more and more. He knew I loved him. When I asked him why he came to see me he would say:

"Do you think I would come and see you if I didn't care for you?"

Last Christmas he gave me a beautiful sapphire ring. After that I loved him so much that if I didn't see him it almost broke my heart.

I would cry myself sick and wish that I were dead.

One time when he came to see me he said, "How would you like to be Mrs. Thompson?"

"What would you say if I asked you to be my wife?" Do you think he really loved me when he asked me those questions?

When he is with me he seems to love me. Now he is trying to turn me down. I think I can't stand it as I know I can never love anybody as I love him.

I gave up all my boy friends for him and whenever I went out with anyone else my thoughts were constantly with him. I feel so miserable that I often think I cannot stay here and see him with other girls.

I often thought of going to California to my mother to see if I could forget him, but I know I can't.

I can never forget him. Since he has turned me down I have lost several pounds in one week.

Do you think he really did love me once, and does he still love me? Why did he give me that ring if he didn't love me?

Sometimes I feel so lonesome and blue that I wish I were dead.

Don't tell me to give him up and forget him, as I have tried it and find it impossible.

LONESOME. You seem to thoroughly enjoy suffering. You do not want to give up the young man who does not want to forget him. It is useless to expect him to come back to you, because it is evident that he has lost interest in you and prefers the company of others.

Every letter you write will make him think less of you. Doubtless he loved you at the time he gave you the ring.

The thing for you to do is to take

Nothing So Adds to a Wedding Trip as a Few Accompanying Relatives.

(From the Monmouth Atlas).

The couple left during the day for Iowa where they will enjoy a short wedding trip with relatives, after which they will be at home to their friends in Alexis.

PICKING UP school papers on the streets is getting to be a habit with us. The one salvaged yesterday purported to be part of a list of these with their respective capitals. Thus: "North Dakota, Bismark; South Dakota, Pierre; and others. The prize, however, was "Naborsok, Olma." You may have three guesses as to the struggling young student's name. Ours are Giovanni, Ivanovich or Isadore. But—as we said before—how do YOU spell?

Well, the Best of Us Lose Our Pep.

(From the Sherrard Bulletin).

B. L. Christy of Viola, for many years one of the most progressive and up-to-date citizens of Mercer county will move with his family to Galesburg next spring.

"PARK GUARD THOUGHT BANDIT SHOT BY WOMAN."—Peoria Journal.

Some headlines merely serve to puzzle the reader and aggravate him into reading the story beneath.

A LITTLE family gathering at Doorn the other day came to an agreement whereby each member thereof shall receive an income of "at least $425,000 annually," to enable them to live in a manner "betwixt Hohenzollerns."

Yes, that's the same bunch we wanted drawn and quartered and boiled in oil back in '18. Ho hum.

Especially "Spirited Conversation."

(From the Galesburg Republican-Register).

It was a very happy group of ladies who combined very successfully the business of needlework and crocheting with that of spirited conversation.

A MONMOUTH clothier advertises "the utmost value at a fair right price—the policy of this store." What's the policy of the store worth?

THE Alamo Times-Record chronicles the birth of a 12-pound girl, adding that this weight at birth "is said to be unusual." The writer of that line was taking no chances of committing himself.

But Does Even a Canadian Duck "Honk"?

(From the Alamo Democrat).

A special feature of the banquet prepared for dad on "Dad's" day was the duck served which were killed by several of the university men. Erick had the honor of catching the largest duck, having brought down an 18-pound Canadian honker during the hunt.

"OUR MARY" is fighting (through a flock of attorneys) in a Nevada court to prevent annulment of her divorce from Owen Moore.

Mary had a little lamb; She gave that lamb the sack. And now the law is trying hard To give the darn thing back.

R. E. M'G.

Heart of Home Problems

by MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: My mother is in California, taking care of my sick brother. I have no one to go to with my troubles.

I am a high school graduate and am 20 years of age. I am employed as a salesclerk in a store here.

When I was 18 years of age I met a young man 18 years of age. I think it was a case of love at first sight with both of us. Many times I saw him three times a week.

Every time I saw him I loved him more and more. He knew I loved him. When I asked him why he came to see me he would say:

"Do you think I would come and see you if I didn't care for you?"

Last Christmas he gave me a beautiful sapphire ring. After that I loved him so much that if I didn't see him it almost broke my heart.

I would cry myself sick and wish that I were dead.

One time when he came to see me he said, "How would you like to be Mrs. Thompson?"

"What would you say if I asked you to be my wife?" Do you think he really loved me when he asked me those questions?

When he is with me he seems to love me. Now he is trying to turn me down. I think I can't stand it as I know I can never love anybody as I love him.

I gave up all my boy friends for him and whenever I went out with anyone else my thoughts were constantly with him. I feel so miserable that I often think I cannot stay here and see him with other girls.

I often thought of going to California to my mother to see if I could forget him, but I know I can't.

I can never forget him. Since he has turned me down I have lost several pounds in one week.

Do you think he really did love me once, and does he still love me? Why did he give me that ring if he didn't love me?

Sometimes I feel so lonesome and blue that I wish I were dead.

Don't tell me to give him up and forget him, as I have tried it and find it impossible.

LONESOME. You seem to thoroughly enjoy suffering. You do not want to give up the young man who does not want to forget him. It is useless to expect him to come back to you, because it is evident that he has lost interest in you and prefers the company of others.

Every letter you write will make him think less of you. Doubtless he loved you at the time he gave you the ring.

The thing for you to do is to take

DEAR MRS. THOMPSON: We are two lonely girls who live in a western town, and we are very much in love with two young men. They seem to care for us also, as we don't go with anybody else. Yet they seem bashful to propose.

How can we make them do so, as we are tired of working for someone else and wish to have homes of our own?

Do not try to make the young men propose. Eagerness on the girl's part is a handicap to her. A man does not like to be forced into a proposal.

DEAR MRS. THOMPSON: I would like advice about my hair. It is short and the ends are dead, and it doesn't seem to be growing any.

DEMOCRATIC P. D. Q. It would help your hair to go to a hair dresser and have the ends trimmed. Then treat your hair with mangle cure. There are directions on the bottle or in a circular which goes with the bottle. Sometimes the condition of the scalp responds to an occasional use of mangle cure. If the scalp is itchy and mangle cure applied and allowed to stay on for an hour or two before a shampoo the condition of the scalp is improved.

DEAR MRS. THOMPSON: We are two lonely girls who live in a western town, and we are very much in love with two young men. They seem to care for us also, as we don't go with anybody else. Yet they seem bashful to propose.

How can we make them do so, as we are tired of working for someone else and wish to have homes of our own?

Do not try to make the young men propose. Eagerness on the girl's part is a handicap to her. A man does not like to be forced into a proposal.

DEAR MRS. THOMPSON: I would like advice about my hair. It is short and the ends are dead, and it doesn't seem to be growing any.

DEMOCRATIC P. D. Q. It would help your hair to go to a hair dresser and have the ends trimmed. Then treat your hair with mangle cure. There are directions on the bottle or in a circular which goes with the bottle. Sometimes the condition of the scalp responds to an occasional use of mangle cure. If the scalp is itchy and mangle cure applied and allowed to stay on for an hour or two before a shampoo the condition of the scalp is improved.

DEAR MRS. THOMPSON: We are two lonely girls who live in a western town, and we are very much in love with two young men. They seem to care for us also, as we don't go with anybody else. Yet they seem bashful to propose.

How can we make them do so, as we are tired of working for someone else and wish to have homes of our own?

Do not try to make the young men propose. Eagerness on the girl's part is a handicap to her. A man does not like to be forced into a proposal.

DEAR MRS. THOMPSON: I would like advice about my hair. It is short and the ends are dead, and it doesn't seem to be growing any.

DEMOCRATIC P. D. Q. It would help your hair to go to a hair dresser and have the ends trimmed. Then treat your hair with mangle cure. There are directions on the bottle or in a circular which goes with the bottle. Sometimes the condition of the scalp responds to an occasional use of mangle cure. If the scalp is itchy and mangle cure applied and allowed to stay on for an hour or two before a shampoo the condition of the scalp is improved.

DEAR MRS. THOMPSON: We are two lonely girls who live in a western town, and we are very much in love with two young men. They seem to care for us also, as we don't go with anybody else. Yet they seem bashful to propose.

How can we make them do so, as we are tired of working for someone else and wish to have homes of our own?

Do not try to make the young men propose. Eagerness on the girl's part is a handicap to her. A man does not like to be forced into a proposal.

DEAR MRS. THOMPSON: I would like advice about my hair. It is short and the ends are dead, and it doesn't seem to be growing any.

DEMOCRATIC P. D. Q. It would help your hair to go to a hair dresser and have the ends trimmed. Then treat your hair with mangle cure. There are directions on the bottle or in a circular which goes with the bottle. Sometimes the condition of the scalp responds to an occasional use of mangle cure. If the scalp is itchy and mangle cure applied and allowed to stay on for an hour or two before a shampoo the condition of the scalp is improved.

DEAR MRS. THOMPSON: We are two lonely girls who live in a western town, and we are very much in love with two young men. They seem to care for us also, as we don't go with anybody else. Yet they seem bashful to propose.

How can we make them do so, as we are tired of working for someone else and wish to have homes of our own?

Do not try to make the young men propose. Eagerness on the girl's part is a handicap to her. A man does not like to be forced into a proposal.

DEAR MRS. THOMPSON: I would like advice about my hair. It is short and the ends are dead, and it doesn't seem to be growing any.

DEMOCRATIC P. D. Q. It would help your hair to go to a hair dresser and have the ends trimmed. Then treat your hair with mangle cure. There are directions on the bottle or in a circular which goes with the bottle. Sometimes the condition of the scalp responds to an occasional use of mangle cure. If the scalp is itchy and mangle cure applied and allowed to stay on for an hour or two before a shampoo the condition of the scalp is improved.

DEAR MRS. THOMPSON: We are two lonely girls who live in a western town, and we are very much in love with two young men. They seem to care for us also, as we don't go with anybody else. Yet they seem bashful to propose.

How can we make them do so, as we are tired of working for someone else and wish to have homes of our own?

Do not try to make the young men propose. Eagerness on the girl's part is a handicap to her. A man does not like to be forced into a proposal.

DEAR MRS. THOMPSON: I would like advice about my hair. It is short and the ends are dead, and it doesn't seem to be growing any.

DEMOCRATIC P. D. Q. It would help your hair to go to a hair dresser and have the ends trimmed. Then treat your hair with mangle cure. There are directions on the bottle or in a circular which goes with the bottle. Sometimes the condition of the scalp responds to an occasional use of mangle cure. If the